
This weekend we are honored to host special guest speaker Reverend Tim English.

Reverends Tim and Que English serve as the Senior Pastors of The Bronx Christian Fellowship Church. They were in the ministry for over 30 years, serving as co-pastors for 9 of those years.

Their vision is to see justice served to all men through the transforming power of Jesus Christ regardless of race, social or economic status.

Celebrated author of the highly acclaimed book Will the Real Me Please Stand Up!: Knowing Who You Are Even When Others Don't, entrepreneurs, national and international speakers, Revs. Tim and Que's message of hope, restoration, and healing has touched countless lives.

Their unique ministry gift challenges Christians to go to the next level while provoking the lost to give their lives to Christ. Many marriages have been restored under their ministry.

They are the founders of The Kerwin Philips Foundation (KPF) whose mission is to improve the quality of life for people mentally, physically, socially, and economically. Over the years, they have developed and implemented life-changing programs that have impacted people worldwide from business camps to creation of the MONEY Conference: Empowering Youth & Their Families to Achieve Financial Families.

In addition to their deep-rooted passion to educate the economically incarcerated via entrepreneurship camps and financial literacy seminars, their heart beats for the physically incarcerated and is devoted to their psychological freedom. As such, they developed and toured Project L.I.F.E. (Living in Freedom Everyday) in prison throughout several states in the U.S and in schools to offer hope and redemption to inmates.

Their voice was also heard by those in DC at the White House providing solutions to reduce the alarming recidivism rate that is plaguing our nation. They have been featured on various radio, TV including TBN and print media for their work with youth and those in prison.
